

12

Table of Contents

Preface	ix
UNIT 1 EMERGENCE OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES	1
Lesson 1 The Historical Development of the Social Sciences	2
Social Sciences, the Humanities, and the Natural Sciences	3
The Development of the Social Sciences	4
Lesson 2 The Backdrop of the Human Condition: Geography, Demography, and History	10
Geography: Describing the Earth	11
Demography: Analyzing the Population	15
History: Revisiting the Past	17
Lesson 3 Understanding Culture and Society: Anthropology and Sociology	24
Anthropology: The Science of Culture	25
Sociology: The Science of Society	29
Lesson 4 The Inner Workings of the Mind: Psychology and Linguistics	36
Psychology: Into the Depths of the Human Mind	37
Linguistics: The Marvels of Human Language	42
Lesson 5 Understanding Interactions: Political Science and Economics	49
Political Science: The Use and Dynamics of Power in Society	50
Economics: The Interaction Between Resource Allocation and Society	56
Lesson 6 Coming Together: Engaging Multidisciplinary Studies	65
Area Studies	66
Community Development	67
Development Studies	68
UNIT 2 DOMINANT APPROACHES AND IDEAS IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES	72
Lesson 7 Views and Perspectives: Classical and Contemporary Social Theories	73
Classical Social Theories	74
Contemporary Social Theories	76
Lesson 8 Making Sense of Human Action: Behavioralism and Rational Choice	82
Behavioralism	83
Rational Choice Theory	84
Lesson 9 Analyzing Structure: Institutionalism, Structural Functionalism, and Marxism	88
Institutionalism	89
Structural Functionalism	91
Marxism	94

260, 60

13 May 2020

13

4 + 8

Lesson 10	Meaning and Interaction: Interpretivism, Social Constructivism, and Symbolic Interactionism	100
	Interpretivism	101
	Social Constructivism	102
	Symbolic Interactionism	104
Lesson 11	Understanding Experience: Hermeneutics, Phenomenology, Postmodernism, and Psychoanalysis	108
	Hermeneutics	109
	Phenomenology	110
	Postmodernism	114
	Psychoanalytic Theory	116
Lesson 12	Reaction and Relevance: Critical Theory, Postcolonialism, and Feminist Theory	120
	Critical Theory	121
	Postcolonialism	122
	Feminist Theory	124
Lesson 13	Interacting with our Environment: Socio-Environment Systems, Human Ecology, and Social Medicine	131
	Socio-Environment Systems Approach	132
	Human Ecology	133
	Social Medicine	134
UNIT 3	NATIONALISM AND THE INDIGENIZATION MOVEMENT IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES	138
Lesson 14	Filipino Social Thought	139
	The Growth of Filipino Nationalism	140
	Economic Nationalism	145
	Filipino Nationalists	147
	Cultural Nationalism	149
	Political Nationalism	150
Lesson 15	Indigenization Movement in the Social Sciences	157
	Indigenization Movement in the Social Sciences	158
	The IPC and Values Research in the Philippines	158
	Sikolohiyang Pilipino	159
	Pantayong Pananaw	162
	Pilipinolohiya	164
	Indigenization: Prospects and Challenges	164

UNIT 4 APPLICATIONS AND INTERSECTIONS OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES	168
Lesson 16 Interdisciplinary Social Science Research	169
The Nature of Social Science Research	170
Interdisciplinarity in the Social Sciences	171
Lesson 17 Addressing Development Issues Using the Social Sciences	176
The Question of Development	177
Development and Underdevelopment in the Social Sciences	177
Ways Forward	182
Lesson 18 Professions and the Social Sciences.	187
Humanities and the Arts.	188
Education and Child Development.	189
Counseling and Human Development.	189
Social Work and Community Development.	190
Communication, Mass Media, and Public Relations.	191
Public Service, Law, and Politics	191
The Social Sciences in other Fields and Professions.	192
Glossary	196
Bibliography.	203
Index	214