

Table of Contents

Unit 1: Introduction to Literature	1
Unit 2: Philippine Literature	11
Chapter 1: Literature from Luzon	12
A. Introduction - Discovering Luzon as a Melting Pot of Traditions and Modernizations	12
B. The Sadness Collector - Merlinda Bobis	13
C. The Same Old Figurative - Joel M. Toledo	21
D. Survey Shows that Filipinos are Number One at Taking Pictures of Themselves - Jessica Zafra	24
Chapter 2: Literature from Visayas	28
A. Introduction - Exploring Visayas as the Cradle of Filipino Life Experiences	28
B. Childhood in the Path of Typhoons - Cecilia M. Brainard	30
C. America - Simeon Dumdum Jr.	34
D. In a Bed of Roots - Justine U. Camacho	37
Chapter 3: Literature from Mindanao	41
A. Introduction - Recognizing Mindanao as a Bearer of Hope and Unity	41
B. The Bougainvillea - Ma. Elena L. Paulina	42
C. The Kiram Building - Christian Cabagnet and Karlo Antonio David	52
D. Fatima, the War Nurse - Nassefh Macla	60
Unit 3: World Literature	63
Chapter 4: Literature from Asia and Africa	63
A. Introduction - Bridging Connections Between Asia and Africa's Rich History, Culture and Literature	63
B. Salt - Anamika	66
C. The Reality and the Record from Madman of Freedom Square - Hassan Blasim	70
D. Bye-Bye Babar - Taiye Selasi	79
Chapter 5: Literature from Europe	84
A. Introduction - Unearthing Europe as the Birthplace of the Arts and the Foundation of Modernity	84
B. Instructions - Neil Gaiman	86
C. The Apologizers (An Excerpt) Milan Kundera	90
D. Surprise (Translated from the Serbian by Branislava Jurasin) - Milos K. Ilic	94
Chapter 6: Literature from Latin America	97
A. Introduction - Expressing Societal Conditions to Discover the Heart of Latin American Identity	97

B. Watching People Walk Along - Juan Galman (from the book "Dark Times Filled with Light - 2012") (Translated to English by Hardie St. Martin)	100
C. The Devil and Miss Prym (An Excerpt) Paulo Coelho	105
D. Tales of Passion (An Excerpt from a Ted Talk Speech Delivered by Isabel Allende)	113

Bibliography	121
--------------	-----